

ARRIS

About ARRIS

Arris is a peer-reviewed journal published annually by the Southeast Chapter of the Society of Architectural Historians. Since 1989, the journal has welcomed original scholarship on all aspects of the history of architecture and landscape.

Manuscripts

Articles should be submitted for consideration to the editors. An electronic version of the manuscript in a MS Word format should be submitted according to the submission guidelines as noted on the organization's website (<http://www.sesah.org>).

The author's name, contact information, and any institutional affiliation should appear on a separate page. The manuscript should be accompanied by an abstract not to exceed 200 words. Illustrations may be submitted in a pdf document, as individual jpg files, or with a link to an external file-sharing location from which they can be downloaded. Essays selected for publication will require illustrations in TIFF format.

Book Reviews

Inquiries and books should be sent to the Book Review Editor, who solicits all book reviews.

Queries

All editorial inquiries and submissions should be sent to the editors. All subscriptions and back-issue inquiries should be addressed to: Jennifer Baughn, SESAH Board President, Chief Architectural Historian, Mississippi Department of Archives and History. Email: president@sesah.org
